Changing how the world does business

We Make the Unknown, Known

Discovering and managing uncertainty and optimizing your global supply chain is one of the biggest challenges facing organizations today. We help government agencies and businesses discover and visualize their extended supplier ecosystems and understand the ripple effects that may impact their performance.

Introducing Interos

Interos, with AI technology, visualizes and assesses your supply chain as well as acts as your 24-hour news channel, reporting on relevant events that impact your multi-tier ecosystem when they happen. Our technology analyzes millions of real-time inputs from over 85,000 live data feeds to provide:

- Up-to-date data visualizations of your ecosystem so you can understand the 3rd party of your 3rd party to the nth tier
- Health scores, insights and firmographics of targeted suppliers
- Real-time monitoring of events that impact your global supplier ecosystem

Fortune 500 companies use Interos to:

- Uncover their extended supply-chain relationships
- Assess and monitor the risk of existing suppliers and their supply chains
- Identify supplier concentration and alternative sources of supply
- Reduce the time and expense to conduct due diligence on a potential new supplier

Key Benefits

- Visualize and analyze your supplier ecosystem from the 1st to the nth tier
- Surface relevant third-party risk with real time alerts
- Receive actionable intelligence about the health of your ecosystem
- Speed up supplier due-diligence from months to hours
